

ONCE A PILOT, ALWAYS A PILOT ...

... BUT MAYBE YOU'RE FEELING A LITTLE RUSTY?

RUSTY PILOTS

We would like to invite you to a FREE* seminar presented by Andy Miller; AOPA's Great Lakes Regional Ambassador

It's open to anyone... whether you're a current or former pilot, student, or just curious about what has changed in aviation as of late.

This course is for you!

What we'll be covering

- What it takes to be a PIC again
- Medical requirements
- Cross country planning and weather
- Pilot responsibilities
- Runway incursion avoidance
- Radio procedures
- Airspace
- FARs

Added perks of attending

- Refreshments!
- Socialize with fellow aviators
- Discounts available on aircraft rental
- Endorsement provided for ground requirement on Flight Review

Saturday, May 19th 2018 9am to 12pm

South East Iowa Regional Airport-KBRL-Burlington, IA

Walk-Ins welcome, RSVP appreciated - (319) 237-8500 - more info at www.JetAirInc.com or www.AOPA.org

Online registration is available HERE

*Participants may choose to opt out of AOPA membership, but will still be charged a fee to take part in the seminar if they are not AOPA members. The fee for non-AOPA members to attend is $69. AOPA will take care of administering all registration fees. No fees will be collected during your actual event.